OF THE
BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

OF THE
R. ISLAND CITY LIBRARY & READING ROOM.

ORGANIZED SEPTEMBER 22, 1855.

ROCK ISLAND:
PERSHING & CONNELLY, PUBLISHERS.

JANUARY, 1856.

OFFICERS,
FROM OCTOBER 1, 1855, TO OCTOBER 1, 1856.

President,
HON. JOSEPH KNOX.

Vice President,
H. C. CONNELLY.

Secretary,
R. M. MARSHALL.

Treasurer,
HON. WM. BAILEY.

HALL RULES.

No. 1. Persons not members shall pay for the privilege of the Library and Reading Room, seventy-five cents per month. For any period less than a month, twenty-five cents per week. Such persons shall not be permitted to take any Books or Periodicals out of the Room.

No. 2. The Admission Fee for visitors shall be one dime for a single visit.

No. 3. A member may introduce any resident of the City, one time, free of charge, and non-resident strangers, free of charge, when he pleases.

No. 4. Smoking in the Reading Room is strictly prohibited.

No. 5. Members and visitors are requested to use the spit-boxes rather than the carpet and the floor.

No. 6. All members and visitors are prohibited from going behind the Library Railing.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

The Librarian is charged to give members and visitors any information they may desire.

Beside the admission fee, a tax may be levied, to meet expenses, not exceeding forty cents for each quarter, at any regular meeting of the Association.

The Library and Reading Room hours are at present, from 10 to 12, A. M., from 1 to 5½ P. M., and from 6½ to 10, P. M.

The Librarian is instructed to enforce all rules and regulations strictly, without respect to persons.

The Librarian is forbidden to reserve books for any particular member.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

The name of this Association shall be the Rock Island City Library and Reading Room Association.

ARTICLE II.

Its object shall be the improvement of the members, by means of a Library and Reading Room, and Lectures when deemed advisable.

ARTICLE III.

Members shall be admitted upon the following terms:—For one year, three dollars. For four years, ten dollars. For life, fifty dollars. For life, with free admission for their sons between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one, one hundred dollars; and upon complying with the other requirements of membership.

ARTICLE IV.

The Officers of this Association shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. The Officers shall continue to hold their places until successors are elected. They shall perform the duties implied by the names of their offices, and shall be elected annually.

ARTICLE V.

There shall be standing Committees on Hall, Membership and Library. They shall be elected by the Association at each quarterly meeting, and hold office three months, or until superseded. The number of their members and their duties shall be as follows:

The Hall Committee shall consist of three members. It shall have general charge of the Hall, and shall post conspicuously proper regulations for preserving order therein—said regulations to be previously submitted to, and approved by the Association.

The Membership Committee shall consist of three members. All applications for membership shall be made to it, and approved or rejected by it. There may be an appeal from its decision to the next regular meeting of the Association.

The Library Committee shall consist of five members. It shall have charge of the selecting and procuring of Books, and of the subscribing for Papers and Periodicals. In its purchases and subscriptions it shall aim to meet the wants and wishes of the members of the Association. It shall also attend to the good order and preservation of the Library, and shall prescribe rules relative to the loaning of Books, such rules to be approved by the Association. No subscriptions shall be made for longer than one year, and a list of the Books and Periodicals so subscribed for shall be submitted to the Association.

ARTICLE VI.

The regular meetings of the Association shall be held upon the last Saturday evenings of September, December, March and June. The Officers shall be elected at the September meeting. At each meeting the Treasurer shall report the receipts and expenditures for the last three months. The Committees on Hall and Library shall report the state of each and suggest changes and improvements. The Committee on Membership shall report the names of those admitted to membership and those rejected. No money shall be expended or debt incurred without the sanction of the Association. Special meetings may be called by the President, at the written request of five members, stating the object of the meeting, which call shall be posted in the Library Room, and published in one or more of the daily city papers, before the time of holding such meeting, at least three times.

ARTICLE VII.

The Association shall, from time to time, elect and employ a Superintendent, who shall take charge of the Hall and Library and see that they are taken care of, and the prescribed rules and regulations enforced. Vacancies occurring between the regular meetings, shall be filled by the appointment of the Library Committee until the next regular meeting.

ARTICLE VIII.

This Constitution may be amended at any regular meeting of the Association, upon a vote of three-fourths of the members present.

ARTICLE IX.

In case of a dissolution of the Association, its assets shall be distributed among its members in proportion to the amount of their contributions.

CATALOGUE OF BOOKS

IN THE LIBRARY OF THE

R. ISLAND CITY LIBRARY & READING ROOM ASSOCIATION,

JANUARY 1, 1856.

Explanation.—In the following Catalogue, the quarto volumes being the largest size, are numbered from No. 1, to No. 7, leaving the rest of the numbers blank to No. 100. The octavo volumes being the next size, are numbered from 101 to No. 275, leaving blank numbers up to 500. The numbers allotted to the next size, the duodecimo volumes, are from 500 to 1600; while the smallest size, named octodecimo, is numbered from 1600 upwards. By this means future additions can be made to the Library without spoiling its arrangement, or making necessary a re-numbering of the Books.
